

To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing this letter of recommendation for Molly Schweitzer as a candidate for a position at your school. Molly has worked for me for several years at my restaurants at 2 different golf courses in various positions. Throughout her time, she has always put work and customers first. She is going to be an excellent teacher and has great communication and organization skills and can multitask, which is vital for many jobs. She also has the ability to mix with a variety of people of any age.

Molly is a dedicated employee who cares about the job she is doing. She is on time, trustworthy, goal oriented, dedicated and a team player. She always has a smile on her face and greets everyone who walks in the door. Molly is willing to go the extra mile and because of that, she was even given additional responsibilities, including assisting with inventory and helping with special events, opening and closing procedures, daily financial duties and cooking. Molly also led our training team and demonstrated exemplary leadership skills by training in all new servers and cart operators each season. Her ability to lead by example was greatly seen in the people she trained as they as well had good work abilities in which she taught them. She goes above and beyond in anything she tackles.

Molly is going to make an excellent teacher. Her ability to communicate and handle all situations is an asset for any school district. She will be a great addition to your teaching staff if hired and will be a great asset to any employer. It is with great honor to recommend her in her future endeavors as I would want her to teach my children. She has creativity, fire, spunk and compassion, all things we look for in a great teacher. Please let me know if you have any further questions.

Sincerely,

Lori Wagner, Owner
